Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Doers of the Word

The second reading for today begins a five-week series of selections from James, a letter that is classified among the so-called “catholic” (or universal) epistles because they are addressed to a general audience rather than to one particular community. Today’s text offers important advice for Christians of every generation. God is first cited as the author of all gifts, and in particular, reference is made to the gift of baptism by which we have been made the “first fruits” of the new creation.

What follows is advice based on a very Jewish understanding of the “word” as an active force, operative in the world. We are reminded that unless we, too, become “doers” of the word, our claim to faith is empty. Today and in subsequent weeks the author reminds us that it is equally important to do the “works” of love, for example, by caring for the “orphans and widows in their affliction.”

2021 Year of Saint Joseph Prayer

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

The Fellowship of Catholic Christian Women® of Holy Spirit Parish

Hello ladies, The Fellowship of Catholic Christian Women® group invites you to join us to deepen your faith through sharing your thoughts on our study topic with other like-minded women in our parish community. Our upcoming study, "Fulfilled: Uncovering the Biblical Foundations of Catholicism" explores how Jesus fulfilled God's plan to establish the Catholic faith as we practice today. The author, Sonja Corbitt, will lead us to understand how the elements that were in the Old Testament Tabernacle (OT) were used ~and are still used today~ as the foundation of Catholicism. We will discover the parallels of what is happening in the Mass through the lens of the OT. We will see connections between the OT and the New Testament (NT) and how Jesus fulfilled the OT. We will be able to identify OT scriptural passages and trace elements of the Mass with the specific details that God placed and preserved in the OT. All the women of Holy Spirit parish are invited to join us on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month starting September 14 through May 2022 from 10am to 12noon in the gymnasium. If we cannot meet in person, we will "meet" via a conference call. I will give you details of that call when I hear from you. I hope you can attend. We are a fun group! 29 de agosto de 2021 Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Practiquen La Palabra

La segunda lectura de hoy comienza una serie de cinco semanas de selecciones de la Carta de Santiago que se clasifica entre las epístolas llamadas “católicas” (o universales) porque están dirigidas a un público general y no a una comunidad en particular. El texto de hoy ofrece consejos importantes para los cristianos de todas las generaciones. Dios es citado por primera vez como autor de todos los dones, y en particular, se hace referencia al don del bautismo, por el que somos las “primicias” de la nueva creación.

Lo que sigue es un consejo basado en un entendimiento muy judío de la “palabra” como una fuerza activa, operativa en el mundo. Se nos recuerda que a menos que nosotros también nos convirtamos en “practicantes” de la palabra, nuestra profesión de fe no vale nada. Hoy y en las próximas semanas el autor nos recuerda que es igualmente importante que hacer las “obras” del amor, por ejemplo, cuidar de los “huérfanos y las viudas en sus tribulaciones”.

Año de San José 2021

Salve custodio del Redentor y esposo de la Virgen María. A ti Dios confió a su Hijo, en ti María depositó su confianza, contigo Cristo se forjó como hombre. Oh bienaventurado José, muéstrame padre también a nosotros y guíanos en el camino de la vida. Concédenos gracia, misericordia y valentía y defiéndenos de todo mal. Amén.

Serie Desarrollo del Catequista:

El Arte de Narrar Historias

Agosto 26, 2021 a las 7:00 PM

"La catequesis no es una actividad de la Iglesia que carezca de bases teológicas sólidas. Por tanto, no se debe improvisar ni tomar a la ligera. Cualquier negligencia de la actividad catequética de la Iglesia responde a una visión incompleta de su valor. Ahora bien, existen múltiples dimensiones de la catequesis narrativa que ameritan una robusta fundamentación."

Párroco de St Philomene.
